Oakwood Knolls residents debate special assessment

By Sue Nasenbeny

ABOUT 60 OAKWOOD Knolls residents jammed a subdivision meeting last week to find out what a special assessment would cost for added storm sewers in their area.

And—when they learned what the engineer's estimate was, a majority of those present voted against it.

However, officers of the Oakwood Knolls property owners association said they did not feel the meeting turnout was "representative of the whole Knolls." The people that were really against the project turned up.

Village Engineer Frank Angelotti explained to residents that an adequate storm sewer project to prevent flooding in the subdivision would probably cost $1,731 per lot, payable in a 10-year period.

Annually, that figure would break down to $173 per year, with seven percent interest on the unpaid balance.

However, Mayor Michael Haley explained to the crowd, which became openly hostile throughout the evening, that if Oakwood Knolls residents were willing to go ahead with the project, the village could help out with 20 percent of the cost.

"That would put the price of the special assessment down to $140 per year per lot for 10 years," he offered.

However, residents present still voted the project down by a 32 to 18 vote, with about 10 people abstaining.

One infuriated resident shouted, "Are you going to let 32 people decide the outcome?"

Oakwood Knolls property owners officers then decided to put the question to the entire subdivision through their newsletter by giving each home a ballot to decide for themselves.

Joe Veith, president of the property owners association, said a ballot will be distributed in the March newsletter, which comes out in mid-March, to find out if residents would want to be levied with a special assessment in order to improve the storm sewer system.

Results of the balloting should come back by the next meeting on March 28.

MAYOR HALEY explained to residents at the start of the meeting, "As you know, there are a lot of flooding problems throughout the village."

He added that the capacity in Sequoit Creek "wasn't there" to adequately take care of the flooding problem, so the village board decided recently as one of its first priorities to spend funds to widen and deepen the creek.

This would be one of the necessary prerequisites in solving any flooding problem, he said.

He said when the village obtained the necessary money for the Oakwood Knolls storm sewer system, they would grant the funds for construction — an estimated five to eight years from now.

However, if a special assessment was approved, the project for storm sewers could be completed by the 1980 construction season.

One resident asked Angelotti, "How many people are being hurt by the flooding? How much will it cost us to bail

'Red' Murrie chosen as Antioch's VIP

LLOYD "RED" MURRIE

Lloyd "Red" Murrie, former Antioch Township supervisor, was chosen last week by a special election committee to become Antioch's 11th Annual VIP.

"I'm real elated and real happy about it," Murrie said. "It was a big surprise to me."

The seven-person committee selected Murrie, who will be honored at the annual St. Peter's VIP Dinner Dance on March 31.

Murrie was born 68 years ago in Lake Villa and attended Antioch Grade School and Antioch High School. While at high school, he was active on all the athletic teams until his graduation in 1929.

He then moved to Chicago and worked for Standard Oil in 1934. The next year he married Louise Simons of Antioch, who went to high school with him.

In 1937 he opened a Shell Service Station at Rtes. 83 and 173 which was owned by Dr. Jensen.

Five years later in 1942 he took over the Standard Station at Park and Main Streets which had been operated by his father. Murrie operated the station there for more than 20 years.

In 1954 he ran for township supervisor on the Republican ticket and won and was victorious in every subsequent election until he retired from that office in 1976.

In 1967 he sold the service station, he explained, "in order to devote my full time as supervisor and county board member."

Last year he retired as a county board member, as the dean of the board — having served longer than any member on the board.

Murrie, a very popular, well-liked and respected resident of Antioch, also belonged to many local clubs and organizations.

He was a member of the Antioch Rescue Squad from 1940 to 1960, and also belonged to the Lions Club, Moose Lodge 525 and the Masons.

He and Louise also have two children, Mike, who was born in 1942 and now lives in Chicago with his wife; and Marilyn, who was born in 1945 and has two children, both red-heads, Bill 8, and Dustin, 6. They live in Antioch.

Reservations are now being taken for the 11th annual dinner dance to be held March 31 at St. Peter's Social Center.

Publicity chairwoman Doris Veith reminded guests that a limited number of seats will be available for the event and reservations should be made early.

Flooding protested on Garys Drive

Several residents of the Village Green subdivision protested at the Antioch Village Board meeting Monday night about the flooding problems especially prevalent on Garys Drive.

John McAvoy, a resident of Garys Drive, asked the board, "What's going to be done to correct the flooding problem on Gary's Drive?"

McAvoy said more houses can not be built in the area because, "the sewers are too small for the amount of homes built now."

Village Engineer Frank Angelotti told him that an engineering firm has been hired to study the problem and a report on the findings is due in September.

However, he suggested.

gested in order to alleviate the problem Garys Drive residents face now, to have an overhanging sewer constructed.

"Without an overhanging sewer, your sewer problem is like a shotgun against your head. You'll have a chance of a back up with the slightest obstruction," he explained.

Chuck Van Horn of Garys Drive said he wanted a solution to the sewage back up and flooding problem in his area also, as he spent all night last weekend bailing out his basement.

After much discussion with other residents of the area, Mayor Michael Haley recommended that a contractor be found to put in hanging sewers in the area to help solve the problem of flooding.

ALSO AT THE MEETING, the Holbek, Orchard and Toft Avenue sanitary sewer project was okayed by the village board. Bids for the project will be opened April 2.

The Sequoia Creek re-alignment project was also approved to be completed with Motor Fuel Tax funds amounting to $90,000.

The board approved Tuesday, April 17 as election day for three village trustees to four-year terms. The two voting precincts will be in the village hall and the Scout House, both on Main Street.

Also, a bid from Benes Construction for $201 for the removal of the Quonset Hut in Williams Park was accepted by the board. The other bid for the removal was $90 from Benes Concrete to the village.

The board okayed the hiring of a Lake County Planner on a per meeting basis to attend Plan Commission meetings at the suggestion of Village Trustee William Seemann.

The board also went into executive session for 35 minutes to discuss the possible legal action they may have to take concerning an alleged violation on North Avenue and Oakwood Drive.

The board then decided to instruct the village attorney to look into the alleged violation of the parking of a fuel oil truck at that intersection.

Head-on fiery crash kills Antioch man

An Antioch man was burned to death last Friday night after his car caught fire in a head-on collision on Rte. 83 and the Soo Line bridge in Lake Villa.

The man was identified as Marvin W. Pullen, 32, of Briar Terrace.

The only other passenger in the car, his wife LaVonne, 30, was later hospitalized with a fractured jaw as a result of the crash. She is reported in satisfactory condition at St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan.

Also hurt in the crash were Terry S. Florio, 25, driver of the other car and his wife Vicki, 24. Mrs. Florio was released from the hospital after suffering a fractured left arm.

Mr. Florio was released from the hospital after treatment for a face injury.

Lake Villa Police Chief John Debevic reported that Pullen was headed north on Rte. 83 when he crossed the center line and collided with Florio's car, which was headed south.

A semitruck, Debevic said, swerved to avoid the Pullen car prior to the crash.

Debevic said Mrs. Pullen was thrown out of the auto and onto the pavement.

The carburetor and gas tank on the 1971 Chevelle were intact, so the chief said the cause of the fire was not yet known. The car was a total loss, he said.

The driver of the semitruck said he looked in his rear view mirror after missing a collision with Pullen and saw it was engulfed in flames.

Oakwood problem debated

Help wildlife weather winter

Angelo replied that the sub-assessment was about 50 percent completed and closer to 200 houses are affected by flooding problems.

ONE RESIDENT asked Angelo if federal funds were available for improving the storm sewers. The engineer told her he had inquired about that possibility and found there was "no money available for storm sewers to be constructed with federal aid."

Also Mayor Haley explained to subdivision residents that Oakwood Knolls cannot have a legally binding voice on whether they will be levied with a special assessment.

If 100 percent of you objected to an assessment, we the village board could still do it. That's a fact, and that's the law. But I don't particularly want to do it that way," he added.

He explained that the purpose of the meeting was to find out "if you want to wait another eight years until the village can afford to do it" or if residents would want an assessment to get the problem solved quicker.

Village Trustee William Seemann interjected, "I know what our operating budget is. And as far as I'm concerned, I don't think the village will ever afford the millions it might cost to do it."

ONE RESIDENT stood up and told his neighbors, "We do have a problem in flooding in Oakwood Knolls. If you have any compassion for the people down there, you will vote for the special assessment. The flooding is a very acute problem."

An officer of the property owners association said, "You have to look at the long range aspect of the property value in the area. Do you want Oakwood Knolls to be known as a flood area? You can't say, 'I'll solve my problem, the hell with my neighbor.'"

When another resident wanted to know why residents were being "penalized" for the faulty storm sewer system in the subdivision, Haley replied that a better system should have been built 25 years ago when it was first constructed.

"But I wasn't around then and you weren't around then."

Another wanted the whole village to help pay the cost of the construction, but Haley said, "Why penalize someone on Hillside Avenue? He already paid for his sewer system. That subdivision put them in right, and they paid more for it."

One resident wanted to know if he sold his home, how the new owner would be aware of the special assessment. Angelo told him it would become part of the title on the home.

Haley summed up to the crowd, "You know how much the storm sewer is going to cost to be constructed in 1980. Who knows how much it will go up in eight years. I think you would get a lot more out of your money now."

Residents will decide that question by the end of this month.

The good news is that most wildlife seem to be surviving the winter without massive die-offs.

The bad news is that with the cumulative effects of three bad winters in a row, some species haven't had a chance to bounce back from the lean years of 1977-78.

The only really practical thing people can do to help wildlife weather these harsh times is to provide suitable varied habitat which will protect animals from the elements, while supplying them with food according to Vernon Kileen, non-game biologist for the Illinois Department of Conservation.

In an urban environment, this means a variety of shrubs such as honeysuckle or rose bushes and at a variety of heights.

One measure of the harshness of this winter is that fish kills are expected again in many ponds and lakes too shallow to sustain enough oxygen under heavy snow and ice cover.

Despite an aeration system at Turner Lake at Chain O Lakes State Park in Lake County, fish were showing signs of suffocating earlier this month.

Biologists rushed to beef up the system and are hoping they averted a repeat of last year's fish kill there.

Although fish kills are expected, their severity has yet to be gauged.

Deeper lakes that are the better fishing areas probably will not be adversely affected, said Illinois Department of Conservation fishery biologist Gary Erickson.

People want to keep it RTA gets tips on improvement

Explaining that they did not want to discontinue the bus service of the Regional Transportation Authority, several Antioch residents participated in a community forum last week to determine ways the RTA could improve its service.

Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz, Antioch's representative at the meeting, explained that its main thrust was to explain to residents that the RTA was losing money on two of its routes, 570 and 573, and wanted suggestions on how to upgrade the bus service.

Route 570 includes Fox Lake to Grandwood Park and ranks 50th of 62 routes and carries an average of 10 passengers per day.

Cost of the bus operation is $200 each day, which only brings in about $33 per day.

Route 573 includes Channahon Lake to Antioch and Grandview has an average of about 70 passengers a day, while bus operation costs $287 each day and bus fares bring in $21 each day.

RTA officials said it costs them $2.75 each day per passenger to subsidize Route 570 and $3.50 per passenger each day for Route 573.

They said ridership is very disappointing, but that the money was still providing a service to the community.

Sterbenz said some of the suggestions to upgrade the bus service included coordinating bus schedules better to coincide with train schedules and to have feeder buses available.

Feeder buses with a capacity of about 20 passengers could travel throughout a subdivision and connect with the main bus route.

Other suggestions included increasing service during peak periods, shortening distance and travel time of routes and more service to area shopping centers.

RTA officials said most of the suggestions may become possible in the near future.

Antioch senior citizens present told RTA officials that they enjoyed the service and asked that it not be discontinued.

Also, the point was brought up that with the increased price of gasoline, more people would probably ride the buses as a daily routine to travel to work.

Dixie looks forward to Chamber duties

Dixie Sparks, new executive secretary of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, said she is looking forward to her new position as a "challenging, learning and rewarding" experience.

Dixie, whose personality radiates with happiness and warmth, said although she has only lived in the village about one year, she thinks "Antioch is that gorgeous space before heaven."

"I love it here, I feel secure here. Everywhere I go I love the friendliness of the people — in the clothing stores, appliance stores and restaurants," she explained.

Dixie had previously worked at Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan for the past 12 years in various positions, most recently as financial counselor.

There she was responsible for collection of hospital cash accounts, setting up individual payment programs and contacting public and private agencies regarding payment.

Previous to that position, she worked 12 years at Illinois Bell in Waukegan.

Dixie and her husband Alan, a retired marine captain and now a teacher at the Lake County Area Vocation Center in automotive services, moved to Antioch last April.

She said they are now in the process of moving into a home on Channel Lake.

Dixie said her first Christmas in the village was "an absolute delight. There was a wonderful spirit demonstrated by the people in the shops, and there's a happiness in the town that I like."

Her creative spirit includes writing poetry, singing at weddings and parties, crocheting, embroidering, reading and collecting Chinese art.

She has published one book of poems and is working on others which will go to print soon. Her poems have also been published in two anthologies.

She also writes individualized poems, mats and sells them for various special occasions, such as weddings, graduations or birthdays.

"I like to be creative and express myself," she explained. Her poetry, she said, is down to earth and includes humorous as well as more serious themes. "I write about people realistically, as they are."

Dixie, who is also the mother of five grown children, ages 18 to 29, also has many personal accomplishments to her credit.

She was president of a doctor's assistants' association, was program chairman for the American Business Women's Association, and was a lecturer for American Cancer Society.

DIXIE SPARKS

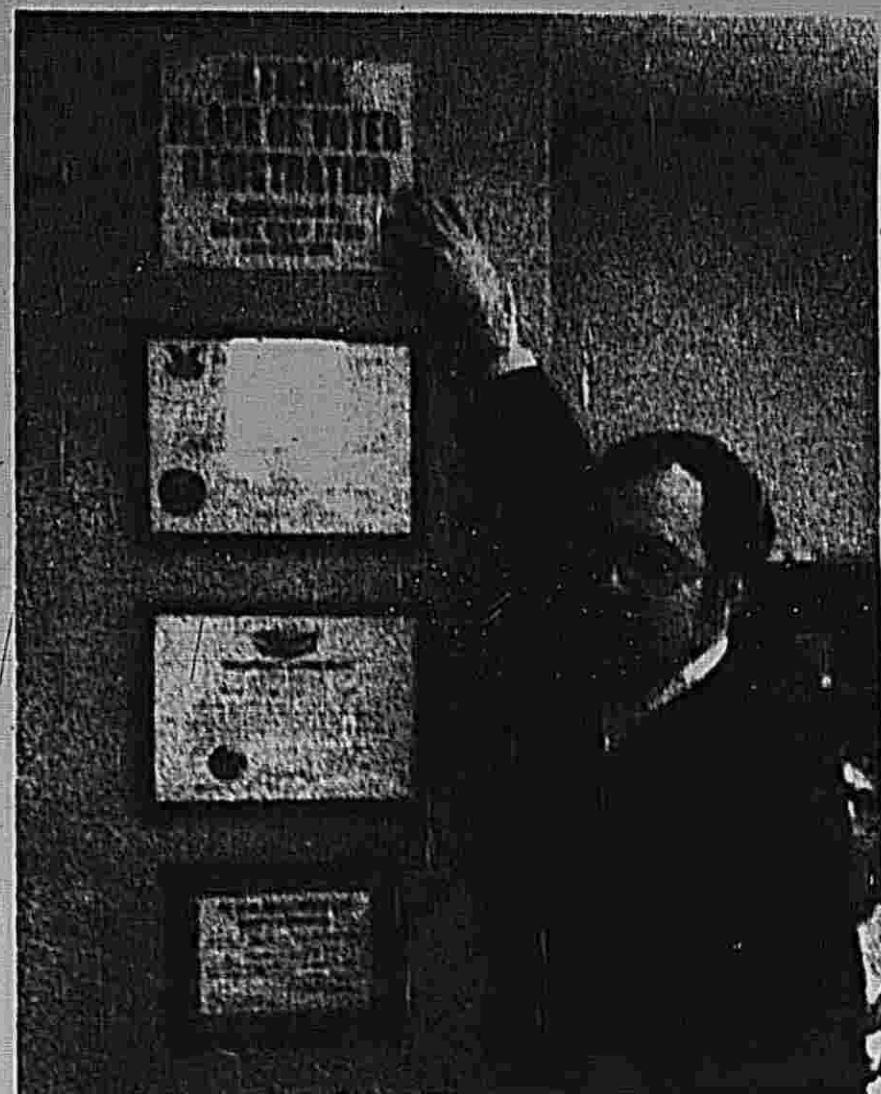

Looking forward to her new position, Dixie said, "I know I'll contribute something," and added that she would give "the best in me."

The Wisconsin native said she thinks an open attitude in dealing with people is essential to success.

And she added with a smile, "Life is a gift. It's important to let everything touch you."

In the wild, asparagus grows over four feet high.

PHIL SCHAUB, assistant vice president of the Antioch Savings and Loan stands by a sign which indicates a new service there. Residents can now register to vote in Lake County by stopping at his desk and doing five minutes of paperwork, instead of traveling to Waukegan to register.

SBA disaster relief available at Savings and Loan

Philip Schaub, assistant vice president of the Antioch Savings and Loan said the financial institution will be repeating the service it offered last year in connection with Small Business Administration (SBA) loans.

After last August's rains, Lake County was declared a disaster area and disaster relief loans were made available. Antioch Savings agreed to distribute applications for the loans through the SBA.

Lake County was declared a disaster area again following last January's blizzard, and disaster relief loans are again available through the SBA.

Antioch Savings has the new applications which are available in Schaub's office.

ANTIOCH SAVINGS has also added another service, he added.

It will now be acting as a registrar of voters in Lake County. "People can now register to vote in Lake County by stopping in to see me at my office and doing five minutes of paperwork," he said.

All financial institutions in Lake County have been asked to do this under a new program of the county clerk's office, he said.

"We are happy to be able to provide these community services and are always looking for new ways to help out," Schaub added.

Free blood pressure clinic set

A free blood pressure screening clinic will be conducted by the Lake County Health Department on March 14, at the Antioch Public Library, 757 Main St., from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

All adults are welcome and no appointment is necessary.

At the clinic, nurses will screen individuals for high blood pressure and will refer those with elevated blood pressure to a physician for medical evaluation.

In addition, instruction for diets, medications and other aspects of controlling high blood pressure will be offered to persons referred by their physician.

Student arrested for LSD possession

An Antioch High School student was arrested last Friday for possession of a controlled substance, what was later found to be LSD, or "acid."

Lt. Tom Fisher of the Antioch Police department said the student was found to have the drug in his possession and the school contacted Fisher, who placed the student, Joseph Gawerecki, 17, under arrest.

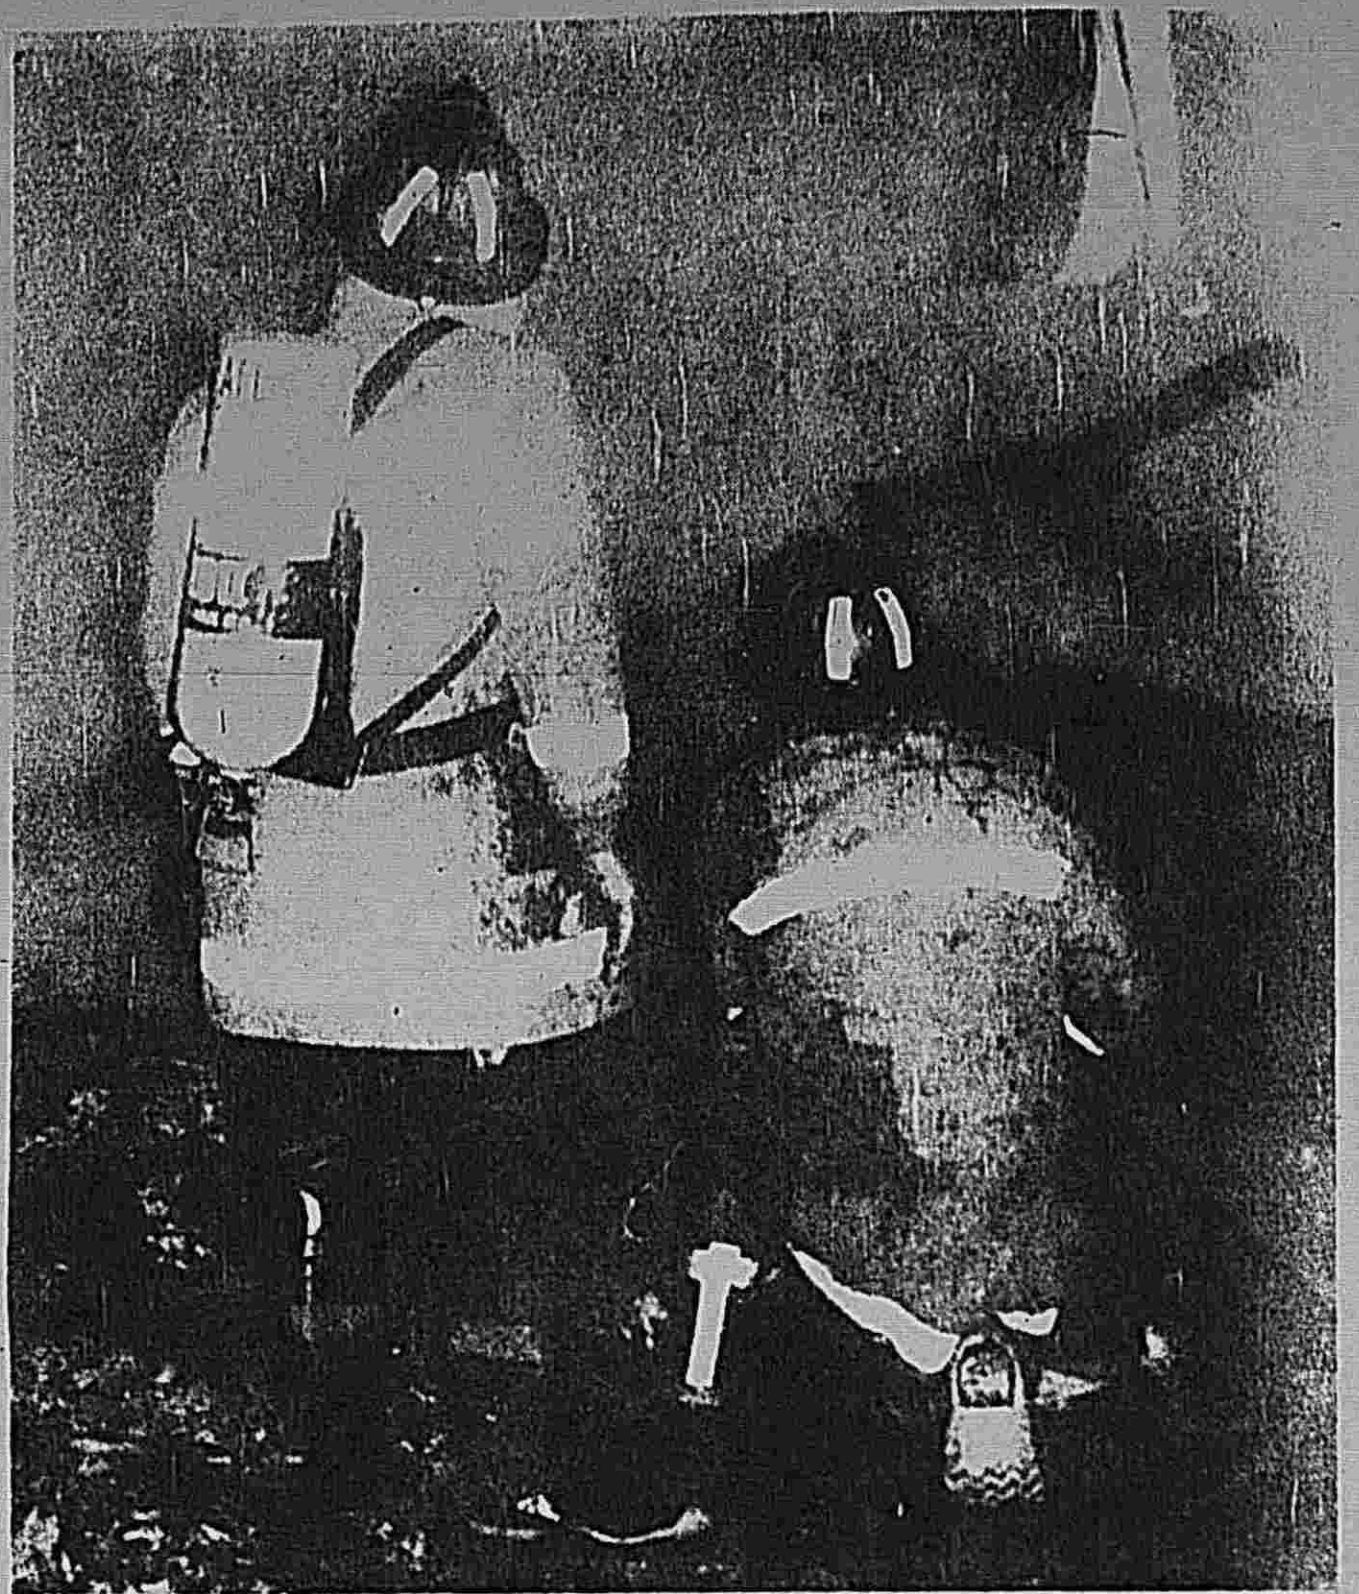

Gawerecki was brought to the police department where a test was run on the drug to determine if it was LSD and then was sent to the Northern Illinois Crime Lab., Fisher said.

Gawerecki was charged with possession of a controlled substance and a hearing has been set for March 14 at the Lake County Courthouse.

Because some ills are accompanied by a loss of appetite, some people have had the "great" idea that fasting would cure all ills. Medical experts point out that, in most cases, this idea is strictly from hunger.

13 beauties get ready for 'Miss Antioch' contest

The 13 beautiful and talented Miss Antioch candidates are keeping busy practicing for the contest, to be held at 8 p.m. March 24 at the Antioch High School Auditorium.

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, sponsor of the event, said the stage is being prepared and the enteratiners are warming up to provide an evening of varied and pleasurable entertainment.

The pageant begins the process necessary to send "Miss Antioch" on to the state competition and from there, only time, talent and determination will tell. Miss Antioch could possibly become Miss Antioch, they pointed out.

These girls have seriously committed themselves to representing Antioch, through their talent, poise and personality, Chamber officials said.

They will be working hard to make residents proud of them and their community. All contestants ask in return is everyone's support and backing. "The need to know you are out there in the audience," the Chamber added.

Tickets are on sale at the First National Bank, the State Bank of Antioch, Antioch Savings and Loan, The Gilded Cage, and the Chamber office.

Seating is limited so residents are asked to please purchase tickets early.

"Miss Antioch" will receive a scholarship, as well as the two runnersup.

The amount of the scholarships will depend on the financial response received from the Antioch business community, and the Chamber said they are hopeful the response will be substantial.

This is the first year of the pageant. Members of the committee have worked long and hard to present a beautiful, entertaining pageant and said they want it to be a continued annual event, an opportunity to do something worthwhile and rewarding for the young women of Antioch.

The Chamber asks that if you have not already committed yourself to a financial contribution, please do so today - make checks payable to "The Miss Antioch Pageant" and mail them to the Chamber office at 880 Main St.

If you have any questions, call the office at 395-3381 or Chairman Brad Ipsen at 395-3111.

Grade school teachers accept 2-year contract

Antioch Grade School teachers overwhelmingly accepted a new two-year contract last week from the Grade School Board of Education by an approximated 60 to 7 vote, ending more than 10 months of negotiations.

The contract was basically the same they had been offered two weeks earlier, but this time two sentences that applied to terms of seniority and reduction in staff were added, Supt. Donald Skidmore explained.

The sentences related to dismissal of tenured staff members in the event of a lack of enrollment or financial support, Skidmore said.

He said the teachers were looking for "better job security."

The contract will be effective for the 1978-79 and 1979-80 school years. Skidmore said teachers will also receive a bonus of retroactive compensation relating to a salary increase.

According to the new contract, teachers will receive:

- A salary increase of 14.1 percent over a two-year period.

- Major Medical Insurance amounting to $334 for this year and $360 for next.

- $10,000 in life insurance for each employee beginning with the 1979-80 school year.

- Paid sick leave of 15 days per year, paid personal days of up to two days per year, not subtracted from sick leave, and paid holidays of nine per year, in accordance with state law.

- A tax shelter of about eight percent of the money each teacher pays for retirement, starting with the 1979-80 school year.

- Increments in an average of six percent raises each year for student activity sponsors, acting principals, department chairpersons and coaches.

LAST NIGHT, at the regular board of education meeting, Supt. Skidmore was scheduled to propose a new junior high reading program to the board.

Skidmore said he would propose that Upper Grade School drop Speech as a formal subject and replace it with a formal structured reading program, effective for the 1979-80 school year.

Skidmore explained,

"Reading is the most fundamental skill of all of those we teach at the elementary level. In fact, most of the research we have available in this area suggests that success in school is largely determined by reading ability.

"Given this fact, I find it somewhat surprising that we simply lump reading, writing, grammar and spelling into one 45 minute period in the junior high for grades seven and eight," he said.

"In addition to Language Arts, our students are given a half year of Speech for two consecutive years. This is highly unusual.

"One would have to search long and hard to find other school districts providing a formalized speech program in seventh and eighth grade. It is equally true that we would have to search long and hard to find another junior high program which provides so little time for reading," Skidmore added.

"If we were a district whose reading achievement scores were, on an average, a standard deviation above the norm, I would not be as concerned as I am. However, we are not. Our reading profile is, at best, average. This is evidenced by our scores on the SRA Achievement Tests given in November of 1977.

"In order to devote more time to teaching reading, I am proposing that we drop Speech as a formal subject and replace it with a formal structured reading program. I am recommending that we do this effective with the 1979-80 school year.

"To adequately prepare for this, I will need the latitude to buy some staff time to rewrite our Language Arts and Reading curricula. I have applied for a special grant of $600 for this purpose. If I fail to obtain the grant, I will ask the Board to support this project," Skidmore added.

He said his proposal would essentially expand the time devoted to reading while the speech program would be incorporated in the language arts period.

Also at the meeting, the three elementary principals were scheduled to deliver a preliminary report on the new boundaries for the three elementary schools, including the new W.C. Petty School.

Two factors were taken into consideration for the new boundaries, school officials said.

One included having schools serve the closest neighborhoods and the other included giving the largest enrollment to Antioch Grade School since it is least likely to experience growth.

Petty and Oakland School were recommended to be kept below capacity to allow for expansion.

The first year projected enrollment for the three schools was: Antioch Grade School — 397, Oakland Grade School — 354, and W.C. Petty School — 280.

Also, students from the entire third grade in the school district will be sent to the Medinah Shrine Circus on March 21, Skidmore said.

In other business scheduled, Business Manager Ron Chilcote said the health department tested the water at Oakland School and could find no evidence of contamination, but did find some evidence of bacteria. Zeigler Plumbing will completely flush and chlorinate the system over Easter break, he said.

AT THE FEB. 20 meeting, the resignations of two teachers and two cooks were announced.

Joseph Comstock, a fourth grade teacher at Oakland Grade School, announced he was retiring and the board accepted his resignation with regrets.

William E. Anderson, a social science teacher at the Upper Grade School, said he was resigning for personal reasons at the end of the school year.

Also, two cooks at the Upper Grade School, Leona Effer and Eunice B. Rathmann, also announced their resignations.

Firemen battle 2 blazes, arson suspected

Antioch firefighters extinguished two blazes last week where arson was suspected as the origin of both, Fire Chief Todd Mapletrope said.

At 11:15 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 27, the fire department was summoned to a boat house at the Hide-A-Way Resort on Drexel Blvd. off Grass Lake Road.

Damage was heavy to six boats in the boathouse with minor damage to the building due to an earlier roof collapse, he said.

The fire department was assisted by the Fox Lake and Spring Grove Fire Departments.

Mapletrope said the Antioch Fire Prevention Bureau and the Illinois Fire Marshall's office are investigating the cause.

In another fire Thursday morning, a camper trailer was destroyed and a boat sustained minor damage in a garage owned by Norman Olsen on Lotus Avenue off Rte. 173.

Fire officials said damage to the garage was minor, and Lake County Sheriff's investigators are looking into the fire, which they said they did not believe to be connected to the Hide-A-Way Resort fire.

Couple plans May wedding

A May wedding is being planned by Edward C. Abderholden, son of Dr. and Mrs. Abderholden of Antioch and Lynn Diane Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Olson of Lake Forest.

Lynn, a graduate of Lake Forest High School and Illinois State University at Normal, is employed as a staff auditor for the 1st National Bank of Highland Park.

Edward is assistant state's attorney of Lake County, having completed his education at Canion Jesuit High School, Haverford College, Haverford, PA, and Washington University School of Law, St. Louis, MO. He also serves on the Antioch Planning Commission and is a member of the Lions club and Jaycees.

The wedding and reception will take place in Lake Forest.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

HERE'S AN INTERESTING item I found out about recently: newspapers were ranked 11th among the most powerful institutions in the U.S., according to a recent survey by "U.S. News and World Report."

The survey asked 1,200 "influential Americans" to judge the importance of 29 institutions "according to the amount of influence it has on decisions affecting the nation as a whole."

Well, guess what was rated number one — the White House, of course, followed by large business, the Supreme Court and then television.

Next came labor unions, the U.S. Senate, U.S. House, federal bureaucracy, banks, lobby and pressure groups, and then newspapers.

HEAR TELL Frank ReCupido will be spending a short time in Resurrection Hospital in Chicago. It's just for an annual check, so hopefully he'll be back around town soon.

CLARA HALING and Alice Waldweiler told me they have returned from a visit to Marco Island, Fla. where they were guests of Ethel Holmes whose son, Bill Cullerton, has a home on the beautiful island.

While there, the girls visited Ed and Ruth Krupa, former Antioch residents. Ed is Fire Commissioner of Marco and Ruth is employed at the Marco Island Airport. They said Ed is recovering nicely from the stroke he suffered last year.

Clara and Alice also drove up to Esterico to visit Fred and Nora Stahmer, who have a winter home there.

They both said it was great to be in sunny Florida, away from all the snow and zero-temperatures.

FOODS UNLIMITED! It even sounds yummy! Steve and Randy Sodman are opening their grocery store right next door to their Citgo Service Station at North and Main Streets on March 16.

They told me the hours will be from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. and I can get delicious deli sandwiches to carry out, milk, beer and the Antioch News!

Also, they'll have fresh bakery from Slove's, which means I can grab a dozen of my favorite doughnuts before coming to work. Can't wait — only nine days until they open!

Learning the different techniques of pen, ink and watercolor art can be fun and interesting, as this group of students in the Antioch Parks and Recreation art program found out.

"I Do! I Do!" the musical comedy full of laughter, love, and tears is coming to the United Methodist Church of Antioch at 8 p.m. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 16, 17 and 18 in Wesley Hall.

Ken and Betty Smouse, who are starring as Michael and Agnes in this production produced by The Fool's Players, urged anyone who is married, plans to be married, or has ever been in love to see this moving presentation.

It is being presented especially for the Methodist Church to help celebrate their centennial year. The play is a "family" celebration, for certainly the church is a unit of families.

The music is bright and catchy, some of the numbers including "I Do! I Do!," "I Love My Wife," "My Cup Runneth Over," "Love Isn't Everything," "Nobody's Perfect," and "Flaming Agnes."

Ken Smouse is drama director at Antioch Community High School, president and founding father of PM&L, choir director at the Antioch Methodist Church, and has directed and appeared in many PM&L shows and Fool's Players productions.

He was Emile deBeque in "South Pacific," Colonel Pickering in "My Fair Lady," and Tevye in "Fiddler on the Roof," to mention a few.

HOROSCOPE FOR THE WEEK OF MARCH 4, 1979

ARIES [March 21-April 19] - Keep personal matters confined to close confidants only; not a week to confide in outsiders. Activities should be strictly above board now as a chance of being misunderstood prevails.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - Although interests are scattered in many directions, energy should be channelled toward one major cause. Friends and new acquaintances are most advantageous.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - You gain more by communicating well with supervisors. By concentrating upon improving employment conditions new career opportunities become more available.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - Although the chances remain better than average for increasing personal possessions there's still a tendency toward impulsive speculating on your part.

LEO [July 22-August 21] - Aspirations are high and chances are good to make achievements, reach goals. Strive for a more stable financial footing. Mate or partner plays essential role now.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - You're prone to fluctuate from one extreme to the other; try to reach a logical midway point. Avoid unnecessary travels and stick to important first obligations.

LIBRA [September 23-October 22] - A good week to work closely with colleagues, re-establish communications. Make joint plans to improve confusing pending situation.

SCORPIO [October 23-November 21] - Avoid disputes that could hamper good family relationships. Forget past mistakes and seek new endeavors which stimulate new activity.

SAGITTARIUS [November 22-December 20] - A good week to get your creative decisions, messages across to others. You're good at making the right impressions now. Give lots of thought to career advancement.

CAPRICORN [December 21-January 20] - A week for confinement; plan your routine so that there's plenty of social goings on with interesting people.

AQUARIUS [January 21-February 19] - Few others respond favorably to your requests. If you need assistance. Be meticulous and more detail minded now as more depends on showing your capabilities.

PISCES [February 20-March 20] - Your lively imagination could lead to new pursuits but don't gamble on uncertainties. Do some careful checking before getting involved with new activities.

FINANCIAL NEWS

[Editor's Note: This financial news column is designed for the general education of our readers. Mr. Schaub, assistant vice president of the Antioch Savings & Loan Association, will discuss areas such as taxes, insurance, investments and financial planning in general.]

By Phil Schaub

In last week's column, I pointed out the importance of having proof of cost basis easily available to your heirs. How will that information be used?

Your executor will use it to determine your cost basis in the property being inherited. He then has to give your heirs written notice of the cost basis. What was your cost basis becomes, your heir's basis, which is now called his carry-over basis.

The old rule was that if you inherited something, you used the fair market value at the time you inherited it as your cost basis. That meant that the gain between the time the decedent bought the property and the time you inherited it, was never taxed.

Congress doesn't like to see something not being taxed, so they changed the rules. For example, let's say that Ann buys a stock for $100 on Jan. 1, 1980. She dies on Jan. 1, 1984 when the stock is worth $150. Bob is her only heir. When Ann's estate is probated, Bob will receive the stock, and a piece of paper telling him that Ann's cost basis in the stock was $100.

This is now Bob's Carry Over Basis in the stock. The probating of the estate isn't affected except for Bob receiving that piece of paper. His estate taxes haven't changed. Bob sells the stock for $175 on Jan. 1, 1990 under the old rules, he would have figured his capital gains as what he got for the stock ($175) minus the fair market value at the time of Ann's death ($150). He would have had a capital gain of $25.

Under the new rules, he figures his capital gain as what he got for the stock ($175) minus his carry over basis ($100). He now has a capital gain to be taxed on of $75.

The effective date of the law was Jan. 1, 1977. If you inherit property from a decedent who already owned the property on that date, you can add some of the appreciation before Jan. 1, 1977 into your carry over basis.

If the property is a listed stock or bond, it's value on Dec. 31, 1976 can be exactly determined. Therefore, you are allowed to use the fair market value on Dec. 31, 1976 for your carry over basis for any marketable stocks or bonds owned by the decedent before Jan. 1, 1977.

Any professional executor, such as Antioch Trust Company, should have a book showing such values. I have a book also. Stop in my office if you'd like to look up a particular stock or bond. If the property was owned before Jan. 1, 1977 but isn't a security, the IRS is working out rules for determining how much of the appreciation before 1977 you can add to your carry over basis.

This column is meant for the general education of Antioch News readers. It is not meant to prompt action on anyone's part. Before taking any action suggested to you by this column, check with your attorney, accountant or the IRS. You can reach the IRS at 435-1040 (toll-free, 800-972-5400).

If you have any general questions you would like to see answered in this column, you can write to me either here at the Antioch News or at my office with Antioch Savings and Loan.

Antioch Investment Club invites new members

The Antioch Investment Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m. March 14, at the State Bank of Antioch, in the bank's meeting room.

Anyone who is a resident of the Antioch area and environs is invited to attend as an observer.

The Club was formed in May, 1974 with a charter membership of 20. The goal of the Club is long-term investment for profit in companies which hold promise of business growth.

A research committee screens prospective companies by compiling data regarding sales, price, earnings history, profits and dividends. In addition, the outlook and potential for a company in its particular field is assessed, President Helen DeVries said.

The Club's current portfolio is reviewed on a continuing basis so proper moves can be made as indicated by their position and prospects in the changing market.

The turnover of members is infrequent, she said, and welcomed the enrollment of interested area residents when partnerships become available in the Club. A large initial investment is not required — only a small monthly dues investment.

The Club meets on the second Wednesday of every month at 8 p.m. at the State Bank of Antioch.

For further information call Helen DeVries, president, 395-3975, Elizabeth Carlsen, membership chairman, 395-2192. Evenings call Art Roeber, treasurer, 356-9142.

IRENE SUCHOR of McHenry accepts the $50 savings account she won in the State Bank of Antioch's weekly "Bucky Banker" drawing from Assistant Cashier Jean Rockow. Also pictured is Dianne Periman, who has been demonstrating the State Bank's new automated teller machine, "Bucky Banker," to the public. Demonstrations are conducted daily during regular banking hours, and everyone is invited to come in and see how easy it is to do banking with "Bucky Banker."

Sequoits go after regional crown

If all's well that ends well, then Antioch's Sequoits need only to win this weekend's regional tournament to call it a successful basketball season.

Coach Roger Andrews' team knocked off the conference co-champions, Warren's Blue Devils last Friday, 63-58, in the last game of their regular season.

That mild surprise kept Warren from enjoying an undisputed title. The Blue Devils had to settle for a tie with Wauconda, both finishing with 10-4 records.

TONIGHT (WEDNESDAY) the Sequoits charge into the regional tournament at Grant High School in Fox Lake.

Antioch (which finished 8-6 in the conference) will play Round Lake (1-11) at 7 p.m. Then, at 8:30, Grant's Bulldogs (also 8-6) will be favored to beat Grayslake (1-11).

If Antioch and Grant both win, as expected, they will play for the regional championship Friday night at 7:30 in Grant's gym.

THE FINAL NORTHWEST Suburban conference standings looked like this:

Wauconda 10-4, Warren 10-4, Lake Zurich 9-5, Stevenson 9-5, Antioch 8-6, Grant 8-6, Grayslake 1-11 and Round Lake 1-11.

The first six teams in the league were of almost equal ability. Antioch, for example, beat co-champion Warren twice and co-champion Wauconda once.

In last Friday's 63-58 win over Warren, the highlight was a 77-foot field goal by Antioch's Roger Korjenek.

It came just at the end of the third quarter, a desperation shot that went in.

The fans in the Antioch gym cheered for at least a full 60 seconds.

"The shot really sent the fans wild," said coach Andrews. "It was the shot of the year (almost the full length of the floor) and the longest shot seen in the Sequoia gym."

The basket that Korjenek, and the fans, will remember as long as they live put the Sequoits ahead 44-35 after three quarters.

KORJENEK FINISHED the game with 19 points while Scott Gallagher and Pete Ploss each contributed 13. Warren's all-conference star, Dave Kolar, led his team with 20.

Ploss also pulled down 12 rebounds in what his coach called "a super effort."

Andrews also said Chris Oddsen's defensive play was "outstanding" and "Dave Gutowski did a fine job as playmaker."

Oddsen held Kolar to four points in the first half as Antioch took a 24-19 lead.

Three Sequoits fouled out, but Roger Plechaty and brothers Rob and Ron Nauman came off the bench to help Antioch keep its advantage in the fourth quarter.

Warren narrowed the gap to 58-56 but Rob Nauman hit a jump shot with a minute to play and Plechaty swished a free throw with 48 seconds left to put the Sequoits safely ahead.

Antioch sophs are champs

The Antioch High School sophomore basketball team defeated Warren 59-47 Friday night to win the Northwest Suburban Conference championship with a record of 11 wins and 3 losses.

The Antioch sophs, with an 18-6 record overall, finished one game ahead of Lake Zurich (10-4).

The Sequoits were off to a quick start Friday night. Shooting 73 percent from the field (11 of 15 attempts) Antioch streaked to a 17-6 lead after one quarter and a 28-16 halftime lead.

Antioch's 13 for 18 free-throw shooting in the fourth quarter kept the Blue Devils behind.

Dan Maras scored 20 points—including 8 of 10 from the free throw line) and grabbed 8 rebounds. Pete Weber connected for 14 points and Tim Koesser scored 9 for the Sequoits.

John Eckert hit 5 of 6 free throws in the fourth quarter to help seal the win.

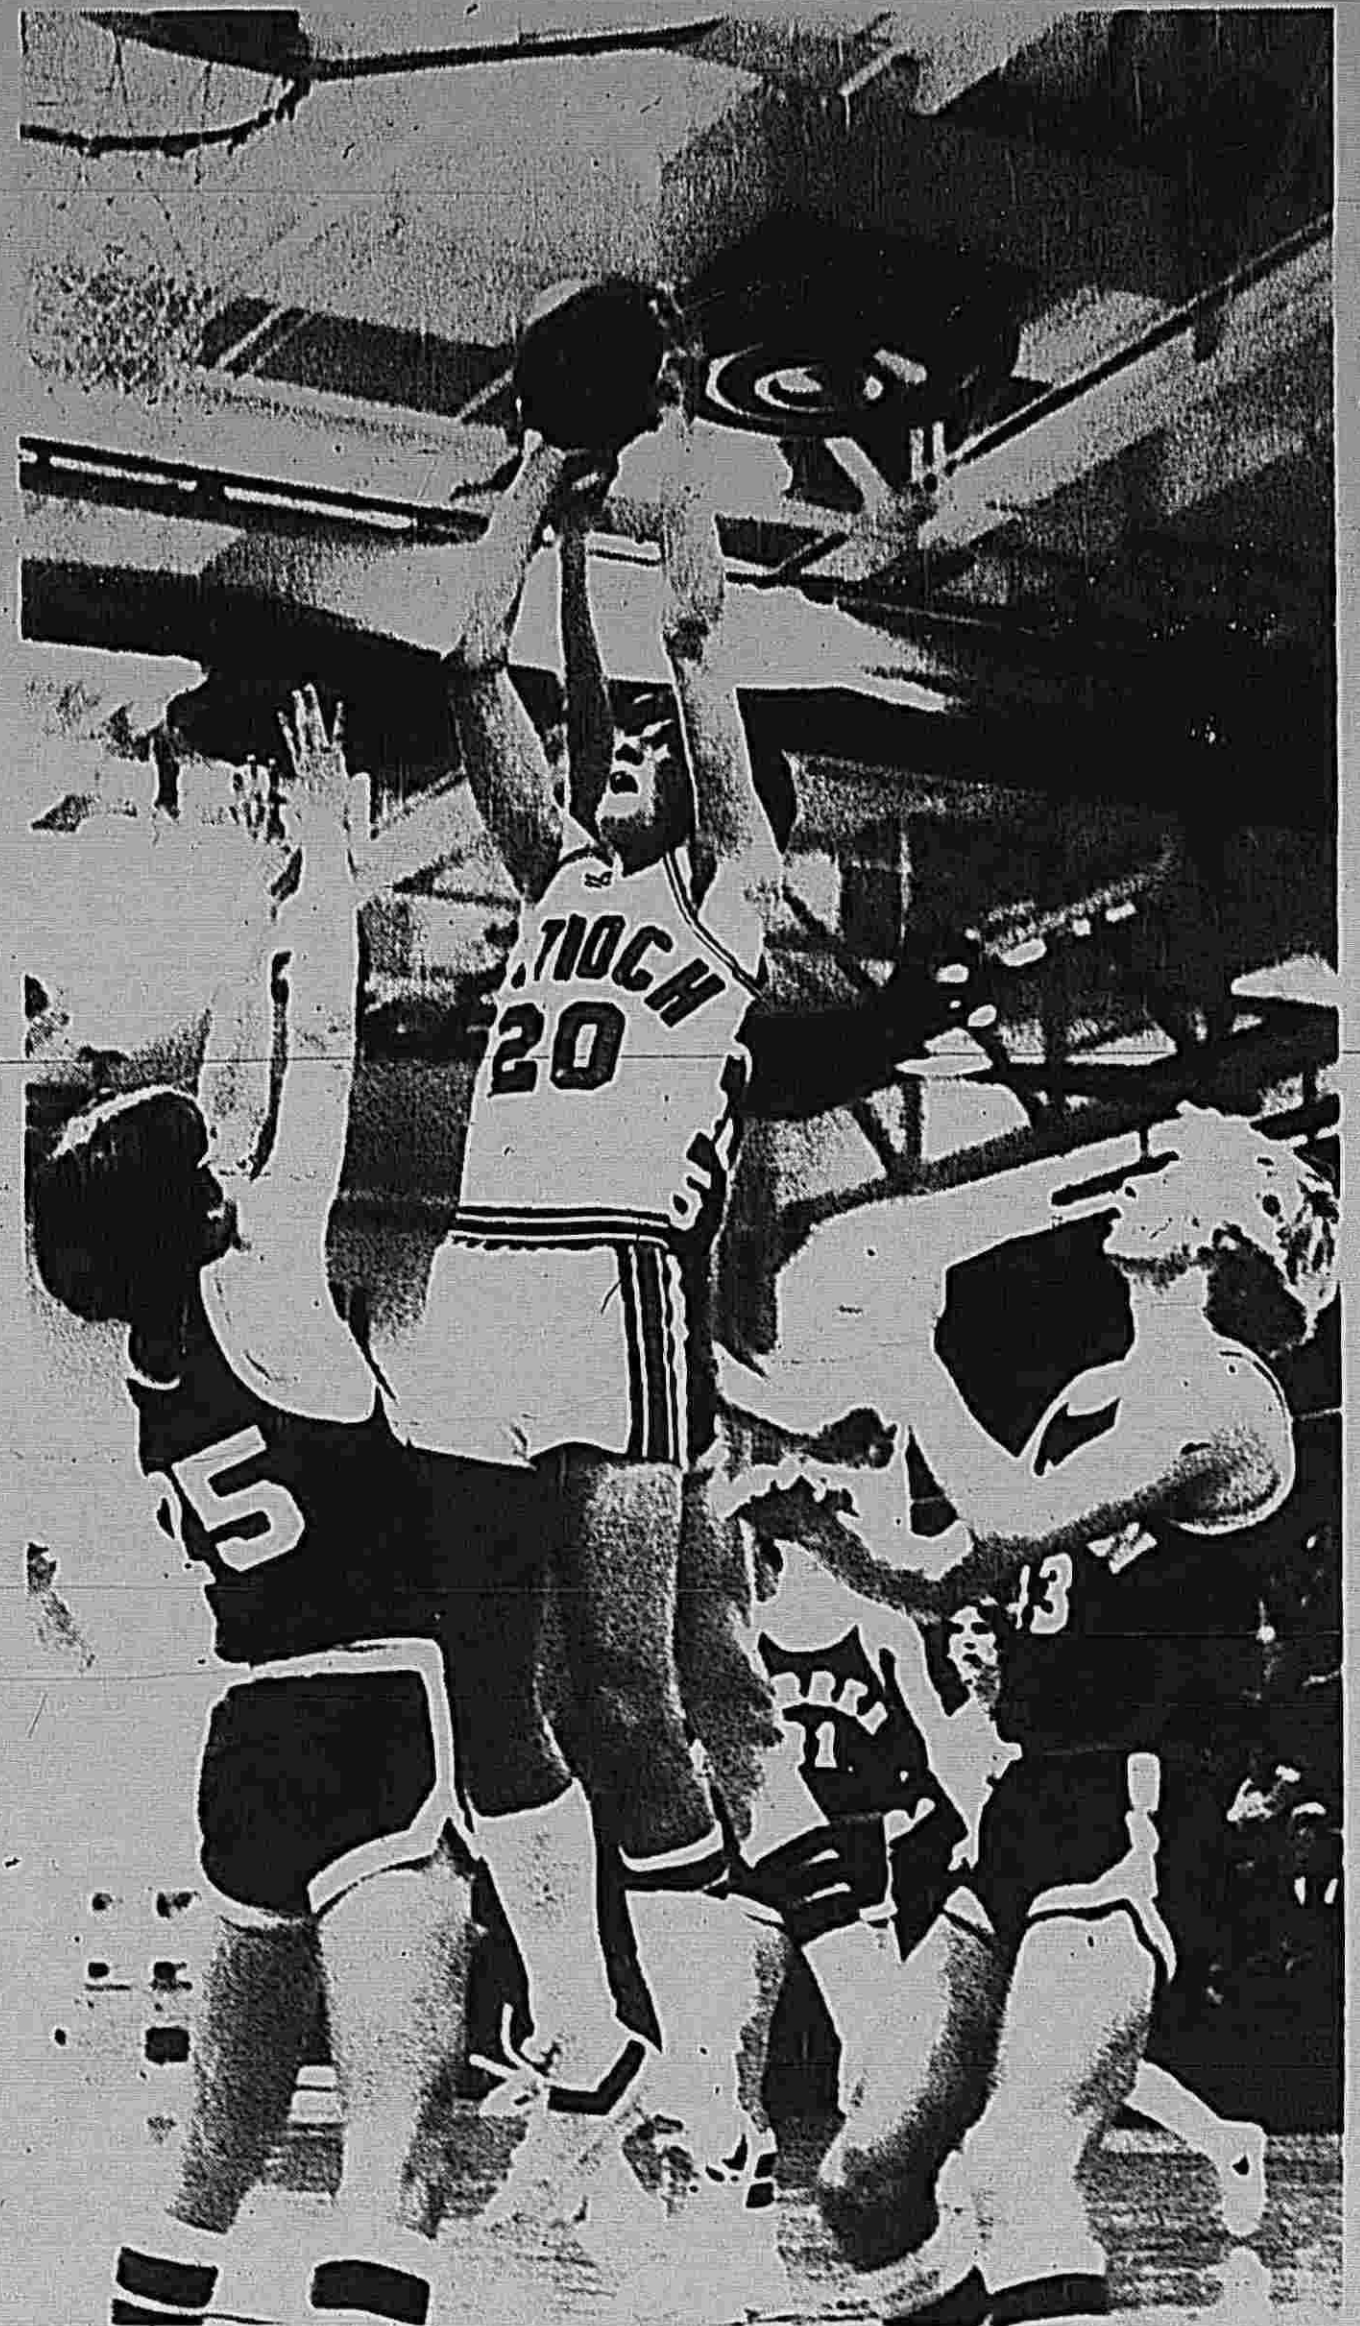

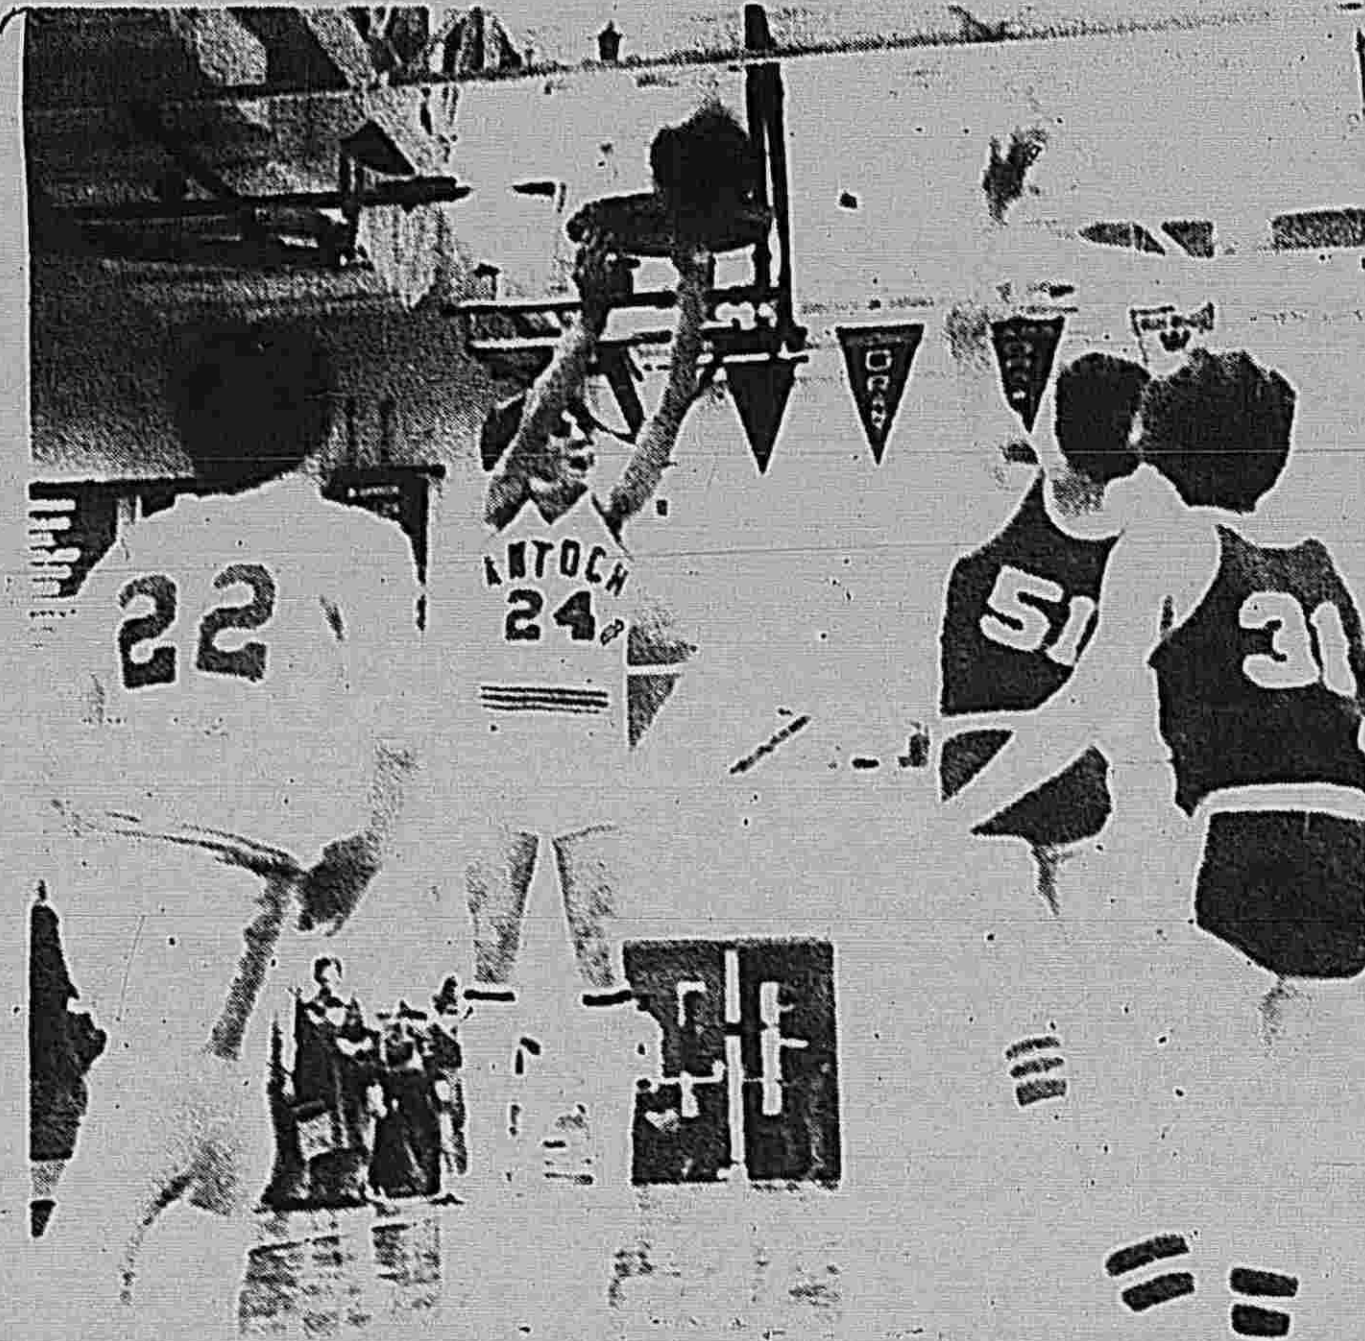

"WE ALWAYS felt we were the best team in the conference," said coach Don Zeman. "We had some sluggish play in mid-season when we lost 2 out of 3 conference games, but we finished very strong with 9 victories in our last 10 games."

The Antioch sophs will conclude their season Saturday with a post-season tournament at Lockport-Central High School.

"It's a tribute to our basketball program to be invited to a tournament like this," said Zeman. "The Lockport team was undefeated last year as freshmen and their varsity was the undefeated Class AA champion last year. I'm confident that the competition will bring out the best in us."

Antioch High to jump rope for heart health

Thousands of students in nearly 1,000 schools including Antioch High School, will be jumping rope to benefit their hearts on March 30 and 31.

At elementary, junior high and high schools throughout the state, students will be manning the jump ropes to demonstrate the benefits of rope jumping to build cardiovascular health and to raise funds to benefit their local Heart Association.

The Illinois Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation (IAHPER) is sponsoring the first annual "Jump Rope-a-thon For Heart," which is endorsed by the Governor's Council on Health and Fitness, during March, Physical Education and Sports Month.

Florence Grebner, Ph.D., in announcing the "Jump Rope-a-thon For Heart," the largest event of its kind in the country, explained the importance of focusing attention on the need to incorporate physical fitness into one's life at an early age.

"The emphasis in physical education is now on lifetime sports and physical activities which are more concerned with encouraging general participation than competition," she said.

"Rope jumping is one of those activities which children used to do for fun alone. Now with the emphasis on maintaining a healthy heart and conditioning the cardiovascular system, rope jumping can be looked upon in a new light," added Roger A. McCoy, Northeastern District president and instructor at Conant High School in Hoffman Estates.

Schools from Lake County which will be participating include: Antioch Community High School, Antioch; Lyon School, Waukegan; Raymond Ellis Elementary School, St. Joseph School and St. Paul Lutheran School, Round Lake; Woodlands Academy, Lake Forest; Aptakisic-Tripp School, Prairie View; Holy Rosary School, North Chicago and St. James School, Highwood.

Basketball contest deadline is today

Because Antioch High School's basketball team begins play tonight (Wednesday) in the regional tournament, the deadline for entries in this week's Antioch News basketball contest is early this week — 6 o'clock tonight.

The entry blank appears on page 15 of today's issue, so fill it out and bring it to the Antioch News' office, or have it postmarked by the 6 p.m. deadline.

The challenge is to predict the outcome of tonight's game against Round Lake, which starts at 7 p.m. in the Grant High School gym in Fox Lake.

The tie-breaker is to forecast the outcome of the regional tournament — Friday night's championship game — and we're assuming that it will involve Antioch and Grant. (If we're wrong, the tie-breaker will be discarded and we will split the $30 in prizes in case of ties.)

SOME PEOPLE MAY have been surprised that Antioch's Sequoits defeated conference co-champion Warren by five points last Friday, but Marilyn Sterbenz and Pete Ploss weren't among them.

They both accurately forecast the five-point win and thus placed first and second in our weekly contest.

Marilyn came closest in the tie-breaker, in which Antioch's sophs beat Warren's sophs by 12. Marilyn said "Antioch by 7," and will receive $15 in cash, courtesy of the Antioch Counseling Clinic.

PETE FORECAST a 3-point win for the sophs and will receive second prize, $10 in cash from the Thelen Sand & Gravel Co. The checks will be in the mail at the end of this week.

Four contestants missed last week's final score by only one point — Jamie Vasek, Robbie Learmont, Bernie Gutowski and Glenda Tomaschik.

Jamie and Robbie hit the sophomore score right on the head, 12 points, and each will receive a check for $2.50, from Bob's Septic and Cement Service, owned by Robert E. Lasco.

License costs for hunting, fishing rises

Illinois sportsmen will be paying slightly more for the privilege of hunting and fishing beginning April 1, as the result of new legislation signed into law last August, according to Department of Conservation Director David Kenney.

The fee increase, expected to generate about $5 million for the state's fish and game fund, raises the cost of resident fishing licenses from $2 to $5 and the cost of resident hunting licenses from $3 to $7.

Hunting and fishing licenses for the current year expire March 31.

Economy-minded outdoorsmen who both hunt and fish can save themselves one dollar by buying a sportsman's combination license for $11, Kenney explained.

"The additional fish and game fund revenue generated from the fee increases will be used to conserve and manage our fish and wildlife resources," Kenney said.

"Both game animals and creatures which are not hunted by man will benefit from programs implemented with the additional money generated by the fee increases."

Some of the monies are expected to be used in construction of a new fish hatchery facility at Sand Ridge, developing habitat for both fishes and wildlife on public lands, and employing additional DOC personnel to work with landowners to improve habitat on private property.

Free throw contest to be held Saturday

A Free Throw Contest sponsored by the Antioch Parks and Recreation department will be held from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. this Saturday at the Antioch High School gym.

Coordinators asked that participants please call in advance if they are interested in signing-up for the contest, open to those eight to 13.

Programs coming up include girls' gym night starting March 13 and boys' gym night to start March 20.

The fee for each program is $5.

After-school bowling will start April 4, the recreation office reminded youngsters.

Also, Elaine Weber of the Antioch Police department talked to preschoolers in the parks and recreation program last week about safety.

The preschoolers attended a field trip last Thursday to Ryerson Woods and learned how maple syrup is made, recreation coordinators said.

For more information on upcoming programs, call 395-2160.
